About Us

NAGENDRA PLAST, established in 1993, is a plastic components manufacturer specializing in the production of precision plastic components for a variety of industrial and engineering applications. Our organization operates with a structured Quality Management System focused on meeting customer, statutory, and regulatory requirements.

We are based in Bengaluru, Karnataka, India, and supply precision plastic components to customers in India, with a focus on serving international markets. Our manufacturing capabilities support components used in industrial equipment, electrical and transformer systems, dental and customized OEM applications, as per defined specifications and quality requirements.

At NAGENDRA PLAST, we are committed to consistent product quality, process control, and continual improvement. Our operations emphasize on-time delivery, defect prevention, risk-based thinking, and customer satisfaction, ensuring reliable performance and long-term customer confidence.

Why Choose Us:

- Established Manufacturing Experience: Over three decades of experience in plastic injection moulding, ensuring stable processes and dependable supply.
- Quality-Focused Operations: Manufacturing processes are monitored through defined inspection, testing, and control methods to ensure conformity to customer requirements.
- Customization & OEM Support: Capability to manufacture customized plastic components as per customer drawings, samples, and technical specifications.
- Consistent Delivery Performance: Planned production and material handling systems support reliable and timely delivery commitments.
- Commitment to Continual Improvement: Ongoing focus on improving processes, reducing rejections, and enhancing customer satisfaction in line with standard principles.
